GUIDE FOR ARTIST PARTICIPATION IN WET PAINT LIVE OCTOBER 10, 2015

As an emerging arts destination, Springfield is pleased to host this Wet Paint Live event! Our goal is to help artists showcase their work, and to inspire and support students to explore the art of painting.

Who may participate: The event is open to any artist painting in oil, watercolor, pastel, or acrylic.

Entry fee: The entry fee is $15.00, with mail-in registration required by WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30

Parking: Upon arrival, artists may park at 100 River Street or in the Great Hall Public Art Showcase lot (directly behind 100 River Street- via Park and Pearl Streets), to register.

There is additional parking during the painting along the WPL “Plein Air Walk” and at the Vermont Apple Festival (Riverside Middle School), downtown Springfield, and on Mineral Street.

Where to sign in: Registration is by mail, however, artists must sign in at 100 River Street, in the Great Hall Public Art Showcase area between 9 and 9:45. At sign-in, artists will get more information about the day ahead and a snack!

Where to paint: A map is provided to identify painting sites and to lead artists and visitors on a loop or “Plein Air Walk” through town that covers many scenic and historic areas. You may not impede pedestrian or vehicular traffic. Spaces are limited at several locations due to town regulations. Artists may choose their painting site on a first-come, first-serve basis on the day of the event.

For questions about the event: Contact Nancy Lanoue, 802-885-6156.
E-mail: nlanoue@comcast.net (subject line: WPL).

For questions about lodging, restaurants, and the Vermont Apple Festival, contact:
Springfield Regional Chamber of Commerce, 802-885-2779, or by email at: springfieldcoc@vermontel.net
